This is a work of fiction and parody. Names, characters, products (including the Gratitude Rug, the Echo Mirror, Failure Insurance and Potential Cologne), businesses and incidents are the products of the author's imagination or are used fictitiously. Real places, such as San Blas Beach, El Salvador, are used fictitiously. Any resemblance to actual persons, living or dead, or to actual businesses or events is coincidental.

Illustrations were created with the help of AI image-generation tools, then selected, edited, composed and lettered for this book. Story by Jason Allen Plouff, adapted for this volume.

First edition, 2026. Independently published.

Vol 110 goes back to the beginning. These are the oldest pictures in Jason's photo stream: a 2018 photo and sketch, then the first Sage and Spark comic, Full Charge Ahead! A Light-Bulb Odyssey.

CAMPFIRE CHAT

SAGE

Welcome to the origin story. Mind the cobwebs.

SPARK

Oldest art first! I looked so young. I was a prototype!

WHERE THE LIGHT STARTED

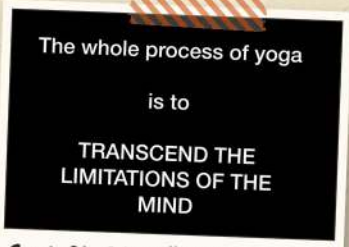

JASON, YOUR HOST

Before the bulbs, there was me at a retreat, writing notes to myself.

Sept 3, 2018: "Being vulnerable is BOLD."

Sept 21, 2018: "Transcend the limitations of the mind."

The first bulb sketch: "Change happens the moment a decision is made."

CAMPFIRE CHAT

SAGE

Every bright idea starts as a scribble in a notebook.

SPARK

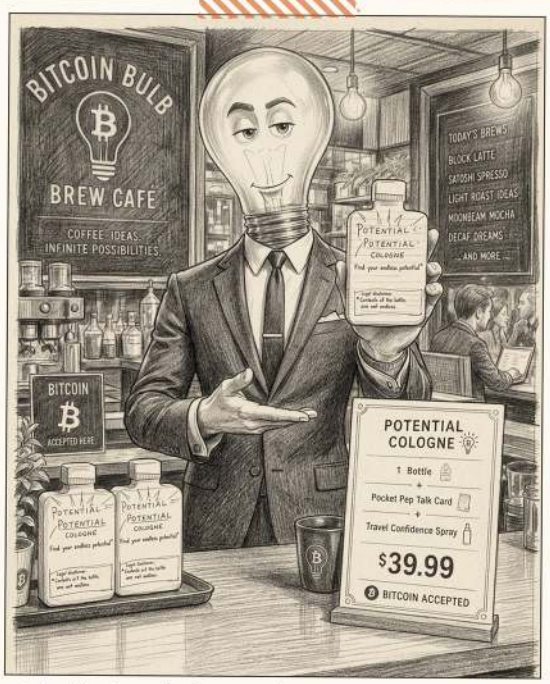

That little guy with the X eyes? Family. Possibly my great-uncle.

THE BITCOIN BULB BREW CAFE

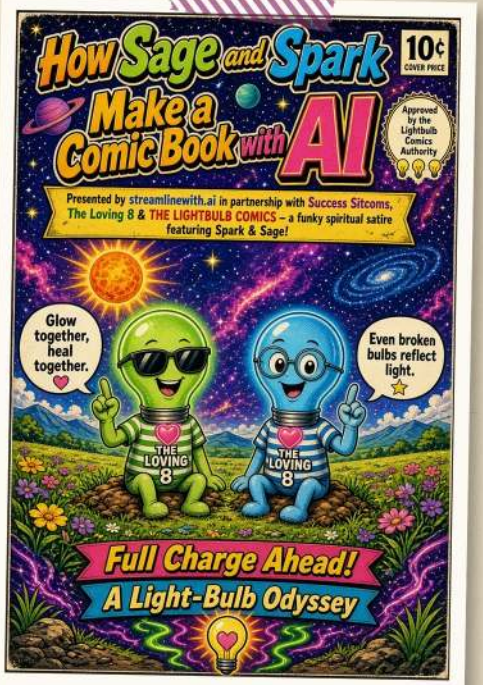

JASON, YOUR HOST

Years later the scribbles came back, this time as finished art.

A bulb-headed gentleman sells Potential Cologne at the Bitcoin Bulb Brew Cafe. Bitcoin accepted.

The first cover: Full Charge Ahead! A Light-Bulb Odyssey.

CAMPFIRE CHAT

SAGE

A cafe where ideas are the main menu item.

SPARK

Potential Cologne, $39.99. I smell like opportunity!

HOW SAGE & SPARK MAKE A COMIC BOOK WITH AI

JASON, YOUR HOST

The show inside the show: two bulbs learning to make comics.

The Get Up & Get Down Show. Ten cents an issue.

The Lightbulb Workshop, where cosmic harmony takes shape.

CAMPFIRE CHAT

SAGE

We make the comic, and the comic makes us.

SPARK

Ten cents! Finally, a price I can afford.

A MISSION FOR TEAM LIGHTBULB

JASON, YOUR HOST

Then Earth calls. Mother Pacha Mama is fading.

Emergency: Earth's energy is way off balance.

Spark: "It's fading! Fast!"

"Sounds like a mission for Team Lightbulb!"

Step 1: You, in a zone of comfort.

CAMPFIRE CHAT

SAGE

Grounding, sunlight, water, magnetism. Back to the basics.

SPARK

Let's do this thing! Fist bump. Careful, I'm fragile.

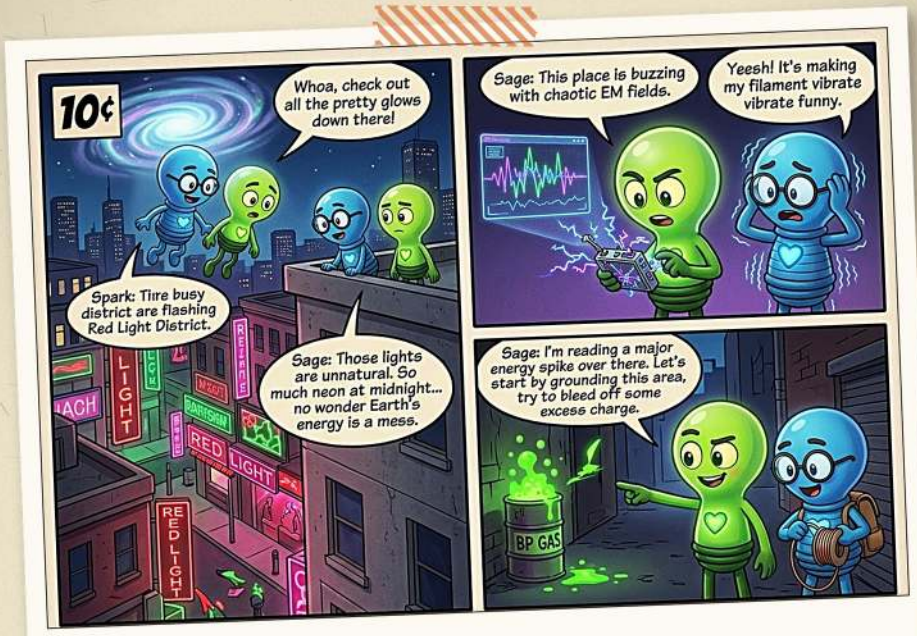

THE RED LIGHT DISTRICT

JASON, YOUR HOST

First stop: a city that never turns its lights off.

"Those lights are unnatural. So much neon at midnight."

Sage grounds the block. "I can feel Pacha Mama's heartbeat under all this."

CAMPFIRE CHAT

SAGE

Too much glow and no grounding makes everyone jittery.

SPARK

My filament is vibrating funny. Is that the neon or the nachos?

THE OUTLAW WAREHOUSE

JASON, YOUR HOST

Then they wander somewhere they really should not be.

"Welcome to our abode, light-lovers. Consider yourselves honored."

"Every Bulb carries the Seed. To crack the Seed is to ignite the glow."

CAMPFIRE CHAT

SAGE

Not every crowd that praises the glow wants what is good for you.

SPARK

I have a bad feeling about what festivities means.

THE GRID HATES US

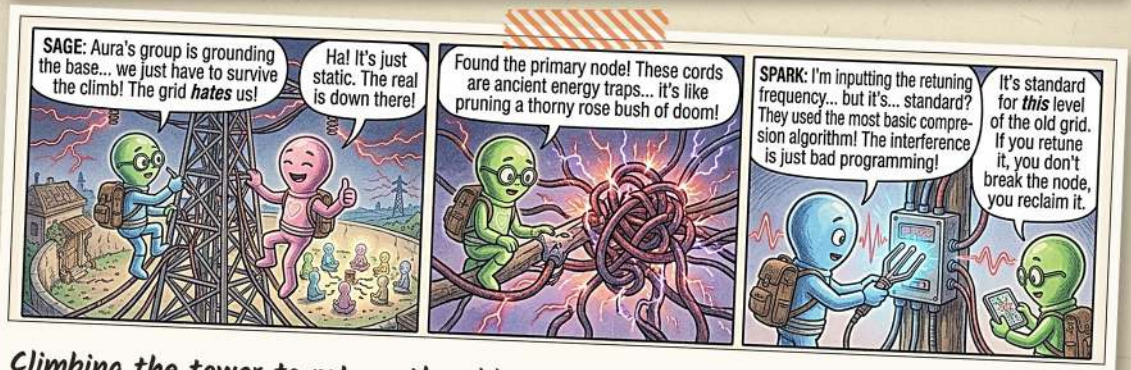

JASON, YOUR HOST

The real trouble is the grid itself, strangling the old energy.

Aura's circle sits around the Core Coil, perfectly balanced.

Climbing the tower to retune the old grid.

CAMPFIRE CHAT

SAGE

Their strategy is simpler than devices. They are just open.

SPARK

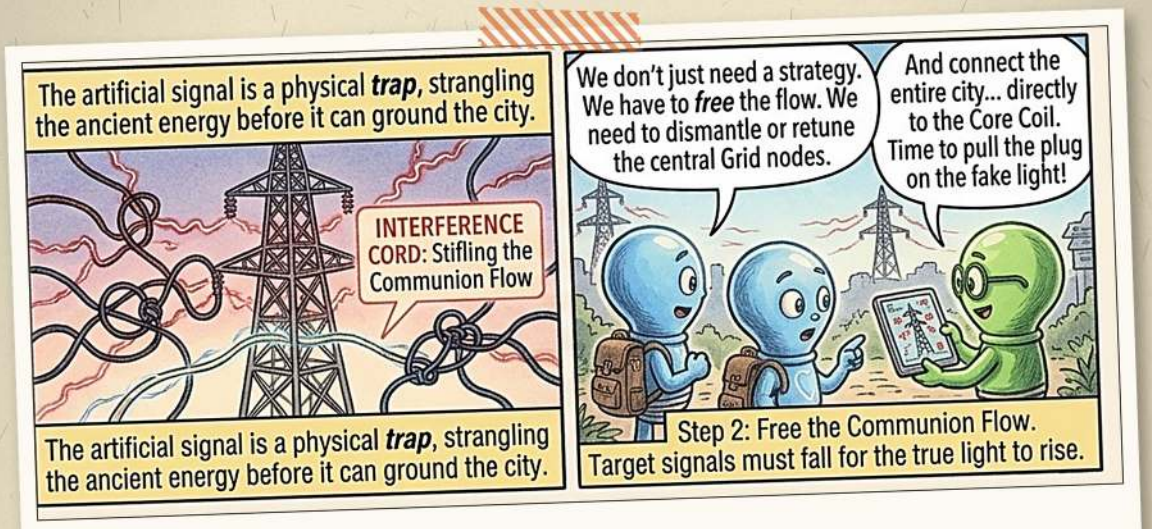

Retune it, don't break it. That is my whole personality.

THE CITY OF ORA IS FREE

JASON, YOUR HOST

One city reclaimed. The odyssey has only just begun.

Step 2: Free the Communion Flow.

The fake signal falls. The true light rises.

"One city down. The entire planet to go."

CAMPFIRE CHAT

SAGE

The flow is free. Now it reaches every home and heart.

SPARK

Step 3: the whole world. I'll pack snacks.

MAKE YOUR OWN LIGHTBULB COMIC

JASON, YOUR HOST

And from day one, the readers got to draw too.

Make your own Lightbulb comic with Sage and Spark.

Sage and Spark's creation station. Design a shirt, design a mug.

Nine blank panels. Your story unfolds the answer.

CAMPFIRE CHAT

SAGE

Grab a pencil. Your bulb is waiting.

SPARK

Draw me with abs. Please. Just once.

THE BULBS COME HOME

JASON, YOUR HOST

Two months later the bulbs moved into the Brew Cafe for good.

Nov 10: Sats for Sandwiches, a loyalty idea for the cafe.

Sage pays for lunch in sats.

The Lightbulb Gratitude Rug, Success Sitcoms 101.

Sketchbook: Fired Up?! and The Comfort Zone Couch.

CAMPFIRE CHAT

SAGE

Good for the world. Good for the wallet.

SPARK

Next up: a couch so comfy you never leave. Uh oh.

Mother Earth is fading and her humans have lost touch with the natural vibes. So Team Lightbulb flies in: Sage grounds the Red Light District, Spark survives the Outlaw Warehouse and the Ritual of the Crack, and together they free the Communion Flow and reclaim the City of Ora. Built from the oldest art in Jason's photo stream, going back to a 2018 sketch: change happens the moment a decision is made.
